Last month, Patrick Casey and a bunch of other dudes from surrounding states, came to Salt Lake City to hang their xenophobic banner and take some glamour shots before fleeing back under their respective rocks. Just like they did in Denver. And Cheyenne. We get it. You're racist. Their schtick is so played-out that people at the Block U on the University of Utah, where Identity Evropa member and goat enthusiast Manny Antonacci works, actually gave them some pushback after they unfurled their banner. Not sure how kindly they will feel about employees inviting fucking Nazis to come wave flags and banners. Casey says this event was scheduled after outrage over Manny's stickers and flyers was expressed by the university. They are vindictive little shits.

"No one gets doxxed doing activism."

This is Aaron O'Regan from West Jordan, Utah. He posted on the Identity Evropa discords as... Aaron O'Regan.

Holden Caulfield-looking motherfucker.

Saw 6 mixed race couples last week. Saw a white blond chick and her black boyfriend on the train recently. I freaking hate modern western civilization.

Someone never read Othello.

Yeah and It's good they are Christian. It will make them more civilized. However that doesn't mean they should come into our nations on mass and breed our women

I don't think abandoning television completely so you can spend all your time on the internet black pilling yourself searching the negative stuff is healthy either. Watch Braveheart, the Vikings, Mary Queen of Scots, Elizabeth, there's stuff out there if you look for it @Grayson you are most likely correct with that. For me though gaming is more appealing than tv to begin with. Most games don't have the propaganda and you can do stuff with your fellow friends.

Manny giving Aaron some movie tips.

Women are the most vital target since they produce the egg for a white baby. If the woman fall for the propaganda our birthrate falls even lower philthy413 subbing to a mod that makes your commanders men does not make the game gay. It's simply reinstating the patrarchy. If anything i'm the literal opposite of progressive. Infact i'm in the far right.

No homo.
